The Word this Week

The Gospel of this second Sunday of Ordinary Time continues the theme of the end of Christmas - revelation. Jesus is revealed to the world by his birth, by his baptism, and by his miracles - the "signs" as John calls them. The wedding in today's Gospel is interpreted in many ways: today, reading the Gospel with the First Reading in mind, we can see it as an image of the way in which God is so close to his people, it is as though he is married to them. Thus Jesus, the spouse of the people, shows God's closeness by revealing his glory in this miracle.

Feast of the Week St Wulstan (1008? - 1095)

Wulstan became a monk at Worcester Cathedral priory & later was made prior. He became known as a reformer, preacher & counsellor. In 1062 he became Bishop of Worcester and was the first English bishop known to have made a systematic visitation of his diocese. He was instrumental in abolishing the slave trade from Bristol to Viking Ireland, and under him Worcester became one of the most important centres of Old English literature and culture. He was known for his abstinence and generosity to the poor. After the Norman Conquest he remained one of the few Englishmen to retain office. He was buried in his Cathedral, and his cult began almost at once. He was canonised in 1203.
